CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

ORDER FOR A HEARING ON WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT HOUSING FOR CITY OF BOSTON EMPLOYEES

- WHEREAS, The City of Boston Code Section 5-5.3 states that “Every person first employed by the City of Boston on or after July 1, 1976, shall be a resident of the City of Boston, and shall not cease to be a resident of the City of Boston during his employment by the City;” and
- WHEREAS, As of March 2024, the average rent for all bedroom counts and property types in Boston, MA is $3,926, compared to the national average rent of $1,702, according to Rentcafe; and
- WHEREAS, In 2024, the Department of Health and Human Services set the federal poverty level at $31,200 for a family of four, while the Boston Planning and Development Agency works with developers to create housing opportunities primarily available to renters with incomes up to 70% of the area median income (AMI), which is $103,880 for a family of four; and
- WHEREAS, Data from the 2022 Employee Earnings Report finds that roughly 7,500 individuals on the city’s payroll earned a yearly wage between the poverty wage of $30,000 and the AMI of 70% at $103,880; and
- WHEREAS, In a time when housing prices are increasing beyond the means most people can afford, and many residents are choosing to leave the City to find affordable homes elsewhere, City employees are forced to find subsidized or substandard housing to keep their jobs with the city; and
- WHEREAS, Cities and towns across the United States are creating housing subsidies or building units explicitly designated for city and county employees; and
- WHEREAS, On March 8, 2024, New York City announced that it had partnered with trade unions to fund workforce housing for the City’s unionized workers at 80% to 140% of the AMI, funded in part with $100 million contributed by union pension funds. Teton County, Wyoming, currently owns 24 employee rental units, which they rent out to public servants. The Residences at Government Center in Washington D.C. was built on previously vacant county-owned land and is open to low- to moderate-income county and private-sector employees, and; and

WHEREAS,

In 2023, the City Council approved allocating $750,000 in ARPA funding to Boston City employees experiencing a housing emergency or housing instability; however, this allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all our employees; and

WHEREAS,

The City of Boston has a hardworking and dedicated workforce who deserve to have access to resources, financial assistance, and housing that allows them to stay in the City of Boston; NOW THEREFORE BE IT

ORDERED,

That the appropriate committee of the Boston City Council holds a hearing to discuss workforce development housing for City of Boston employees. Representatives from the City of Boston, including the Office of Fair Housing and Equity, the Mayor's Office of Housing, the Office of Workforce Development, and the Boston Housing Authority, in addition to housing advocates and members of the public are encouraged to attend.
