

OFFERED BY COUNCILOR ERIN J. MURPHY

CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

ORDER FOR A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING WORK INC.

WHEREAS, WORK Inc. employs more than 120 individuals throughout Massachusetts on AbilityOne contracts in federal buildings, many of whom hold jobs in Boston. WORK Inc. provides an invaluable service by hooking up people who want the dignity and benefits that come from having jobs with the skills and support services. Organizations like WORK Inc enrich the life of not just the person doing the job, but their families, their employers, and the entire community; and

WHEREAS, National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) is a federally recognized observation that celebrates the contributions of America's workers with disabilities. The month highlights supportive and inclusive employment policies and practices.; and

WHEREAS, Last week, I paid a visit to the John F. Kennedy Federal Building in Boston as WORK Inc., a Dorchester-based non-profit, has been highlighting how crucial it is to provide the opportunities and career pathways for those with disabilities. Organizations like WORK Inc are specifically dedicated to employing disabled individuals in meaningful occupations; NOW, THEREFORE BE IT

ORDERED: That the Boston City Council recognizes WORK Inc. for its contributions of the hundreds of hardworking individuals with disabilities in our City.

Filed on: October 18, 2023