Does everyone understand that customer service is not a department, but a philosophy? It's also an attitude!

Thank you, Suzzette!

On a separate note, we are hosting a small contractor networking event for our annual Supplier Diversity week and would love to have you join to represent DCAMM if you're available. The date is Wednesday October 29, 2025 from 4:30-6:30pm. Location is likely going to be the North Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters building at 750 Dorchester Ave, we are still finalizing this so location may change.

This will be an opportunity for smaller subcontractors to connect with City of Boston construction departments, Prime Contractors, and contractor support organizations. DCAMM would be a great addition! Let me know what you think.

Best,
Kat
