

Official Resolution Presented by Councilor MINIARD CULPEPPER

Be it Resolved, that the Boston City Council offers its congratulations to:

REVEREND JOE COOK

In Recognition of:

Your outstanding leadership, scholarship, and commitment to education and community empowerment have made a lasting impact throughout the City of Boston and beyond. Raised in Washington, D.C. in a family of educators, you pursued a lifelong commitment to learning through studies in Elementary Education and Theater Arts at Fisk University, a Master's degree in Early Childhood Education at Wheelock College, service as an Urban Studies Fellow at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the completion of your Ph.D. in Leadership in Urban Education at the University of Massachusetts Boston. As co-founder of the Paige Academy, your vision and leadership have helped create a nurturing educational environment grounded in culture, creativity, and academic excellence. The Boston City Council recognizes and thanks Dr. Angela Paige Cook for your lifelong dedication to educational equity, culturally responsive learning, and the transformative work of the Paige Academy, which continues to uplift children, families, and communities across Boston.

And be it further Resolved that the Boston City Council extends its best wishes for your continued success; that this Resolution be duly signed by the President of the City Council and attested to a copy thereof transmitted by the Clerk of the City of Boston.
