CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION DECLARING NOVEMBER 18, 2023
OSCAR BAEZ & JOSEPH DEITCH DAY

WHEREAS, As young men from the neighborhoods of Boston to consummate professionals on the global stage, Oscar Baez - a versatile and dedicated public servant - and Joseph Deitch - an accomplished and visionary business leader, they have left an indelible mark on countless lives; and

WHEREAS, Both men have contributed a significant and lasting impact on today's and future generations of leaders by cultivating opportunities fueled by their tireless commitment to unlocking that which might be underdeveloped - or otherwise out of reach - without their stalwart efforts; and

WHEREAS, Both embody an enduring passion to improve lives and to mitigate barriers essentially ameliorating the quality of life of citizens around the world and have each - in their own way - affected transformational change in the lives of others, especially for those who may be making their way in the world seemingly against steep odds; and

WHEREAS, Their distinct yet synergistic paths toward excellence affirm a steadfast confidence in the value of public education and the durability of Boston Latin School - America's first public school in its 388th year - as a beacon of promise and possibilities for Boston's young people from all walks of life;
NOW, THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council go on record declaring November 18th as Oscar Baez & Joseph Deitch Day.
