CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE 30TH ANNIVERSARY OF TD GARDEN AND NAMING SEPTEMBER 30, 2025 “TD GARDEN DAY” IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

- WHEREAS, For three decades, TD Garden has stood as a landmark in the West End and as an engine of commerce, culture, and community; and
- WHEREAS, TD Garden is the proud home to the NHL’s Boston Bruins and the NBA’s Boston Celtics, and as the largest sports and entertainment arena in New England, welcomes 3.5 million visitors each year to world-class concerts, sporting events, cultural events and more; and
- WHEREAS, Since opening its doors on September 30, 1995, TD Garden has hosted over 250 events annually at its state-of-the-art facilities, including national and Olympic sporting events, generating more than $365 million in economic impact for Greater Boston from major national events alone, in addition to Bruins and Celtics games; and
- WHEREAS, As the successor to the original Boston Garden (1928-1995), TD Garden carries forward the legacy of one of Boston’s beloved venues, serving as the stage for iconic performances and sports games, the home of two of the city’s most storied teams, and a place where generations of fans have come together to share in the culture of Boston; and
- WHEREAS, TD Garden’s commitment to the City extends far beyond entertainment, reflected in its participation in charitable and community initiatives and its dedication to delivering a top-tier experience for fans and Boston residents; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Boston is proud to recognize TD Garden as a world-class sports and entertainment arena, a home to championship teams, and a source of pride, culture and economic vitality for the City; NOW, THEREFORE BE IT
- ORDERED: The Boston City Council honors TD Garden for its contributions to the City, and, on the occasion of its 30th Anniversary, recognizes September 30, 2025 as “TD Garden Day” in the City of Boston.
