CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING MAY 12TH AS MOTHER'S DAY IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

- WHEREAS, Mother's Day, observed on May 12th, serves as a heartfelt tribute to the immeasurable love, sacrifices, and guidance provided by mothers and maternal figures worldwide, standing as a reminder of the profound impact these figures have on shaping our lives and communities; and
- WHEREAS, Mothers stand as the cornerstone of families, providing unwavering love, support, and guidance that serve as the bedrock for their children's growth and development, with their nurturing presence fostering a sense of security and belonging, laying the groundwork for strong familial bonds and a supportive home environment; and
- WHEREAS, The sacrifices made by mothers, from countless sleepless nights to boundless acts of love and care, are a testament to their enduring dedication to their families; and
- WHEREAS, Mother's Day holds deep sentimental significance as a time for families and communities to express gratitude, appreciation, and affection for the nurturing role of mothers, providing a sacred opportunity for loved ones to come together and reflect on cherished memories; and
- WHEREAS, Mother's Day offers an opportunity to honor the diverse contributions and experiences of mothers from all backgrounds, recognizing their resilience, strength, and unwavering dedication to their families; and
- WHEREAS, Celebrating Mother's Day acknowledges the invaluable role of mothers in building strong, resilient communities, and fostering a culture of care and compassion for all; and
- WHEREAS, Recognizing Mother's Day aligns with Boston's commitment to inclusivity and appreciation for the countless contributions of mothers to the well-being and prosperity of our city; NOW THEREFORE BE IT
- RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council hereby officially recognizes May 12th as Mother's Day and extends heartfelt appreciation to all mothers and maternal figures in Boston and beyond, expressing profound gratitude for their love, guidance, and unwavering support.
