The Mission Grammar School Groundbreaking

The City of Boston proudly recognizes Mission Grammar School and Mission Church on the groundbreaking of the first of three projects in their Mission to Lead campaign, an effort to expand their campus and create new opportunities for students and families. This is a transformative investment in Boston's children and the Mission Hill community. For more than 135 years, Mission Grammar has been a steadfast pillar in Roxbury and Mission Hill, providing high-quality, faith-based education for generations of Boston families. This expansion reflects their enduring commitment to equity, academic excellence, and faith-based education. The Boston City Council celebrates Mission Grammar's lasting contributions to our city and its continued leadership in helping young scholars learn and thrive.
