Official Resolution Presented by Councilor MINIARD CULPEPPER

Be it Resolved, that the Boston City Council offers its congratulations to:

CLARISSA CROPPER EGERTON AND LEONARD EGERTON

In Recognition of:

Your longstanding commitment to Roxbury and the Nubian Square community as the owners of Frugal Bookstore. Through your leadership as Black business owners, you have invested in the vitality of Nubian Square while creating a welcoming community institution that celebrates literature, learning, and culture. Your dedication to serving residents and supporting the broader community reflects the spirit of entrepreneurship, partnership, and service that continues to strengthen Roxbury. On the occasion of Recovery Day 2026, hosted by the Nubian Square Task Force, the Boston City Council proudly recognizes your years of service and the positive impact you continue to make in Nubian Square and throughout the community.

And be it further Resolved that the Boston City Council extends its best wishes for your continued success; that this Resolution be duly signed by the President of the City Council and attested to a copy thereof transmitted by the Clerk of the City of Boston.
